

Brahmand

Aim: Compete with others and display your knowledge in this space trivia competition.

Think you know everything under the sun? Whether its black holes or stellar phenomena, you've got it all done? Well then, look no further for the chance to prove your mettle. The ASPS's technical quiz will bring the case of who's the best to a settle. From the space shuttle to gravitational lensing; even if you're not interested in the prize, you're going to learn quite a bit, that's for certain. So don't let the chance slip by and let your knowledge take to the skies.
